

3 Interesting Facts About Secretaries of State & Election Directors

Influenced by National Associations

Did you know that all 50 of the Secretaries of State, including Montana's Secretary of State, belong to the National Association of Secretaries of State (NASS)? In addition, all State Election Directors, including the Montana State Election Director, belong to the National Association of State Election Directors (NASED).

Funded by Big Tech & Voting Machine Companies

Each association (NASS & NASED) is funded in part by ES&S, Dominion, Runbeck, and Smartmatic voting machine companies, as well as tech companies like Facebook (now Meta), and Amazon.

Post-Election Audits Now Have More Top-Down Control

In August 2021, 48 of the 50 members of NASS, including Montana Secretary of State, voted to approve recommendations for post-election audits “to promote a greater public understanding of the processes, procedures, and necessary elements for successful audits.” These recommendations appear to restrict the type of audit that was conducted in Maricopa County and put more control in the hands of the government.
